I learned...

This is what I learned. I learned that the reason why our city is called the Motor City is because we made more cars than any other city in the United States. The other thing I learned is in the old days only rich people could afford cars. The "Big Three" means Chrysler, Ford, and GM. car companies. Henry Ford has a museum named after him. The Automobile Industry made alot of money for Detroit.

This is what I learned while working on my project.
